

The people of Wisconsin have recently heard on the local news that the banking industry wants to change our statewide No Call List law.

I would like to state that I do not think they should be allowed to make numerous, obnoxious phone calls to former customers.

Since our No Call List has been implemented, the number of calls has decreased by 95% and my family would like to keep it that way.

Thank you for allowing me to comment on this issue.